DEDICATION

FOR YOUR WISDOM which has made us wiser, for your friendship which has made us stronger, for your guidance which has led us onward, we dedicate to you, Miss Boyce, our Annual of 1938 as an expression of our gratitude to you as a teacher, friend, and counselor.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

To those who are graduating and who are receiving certificates from Mitchell in 1938:

This commencement season is to you the attainment of a goal, the fulfillment of a desire, the beginning of a new day. May your Mitchell diploma or certificate be, not only an emblem of scholarship and efficiency, but also an earnest of success and happiness. More than all else, may your memories of Mitchell carry a vision of the uplifted Christ, and your experiences here be climaxed with a sense of the reality of God and a desire to be found in the center of His will.

Be assured of my continued interest in you.

The Columns

The Circle

THE CIRCLE, o'ershadowed by columns so massive,
Rests 'neath the shade of the oak tall and passive.
To us who are leaving, that circle will stand
As a long lasting symbol, an unbreakable band
That has bound us together, has made us as one
In joy and in sorrow, in work and in fun.
It will seem like a chain which we started to weave
When we first came to Mitchell, our goals to achieve.
And to the small fragment which then was begun,
Together we added the links one by one.
If examined, each one would be found to conceal
Some mem'ry most dear that our hearts still can feel.
Till at last, graduating, we see the ends meet
To make our life here, and our circle, complete.
We thank you, dear Mitchell, for this emblem you give
To bind us in friendship as long as we live.

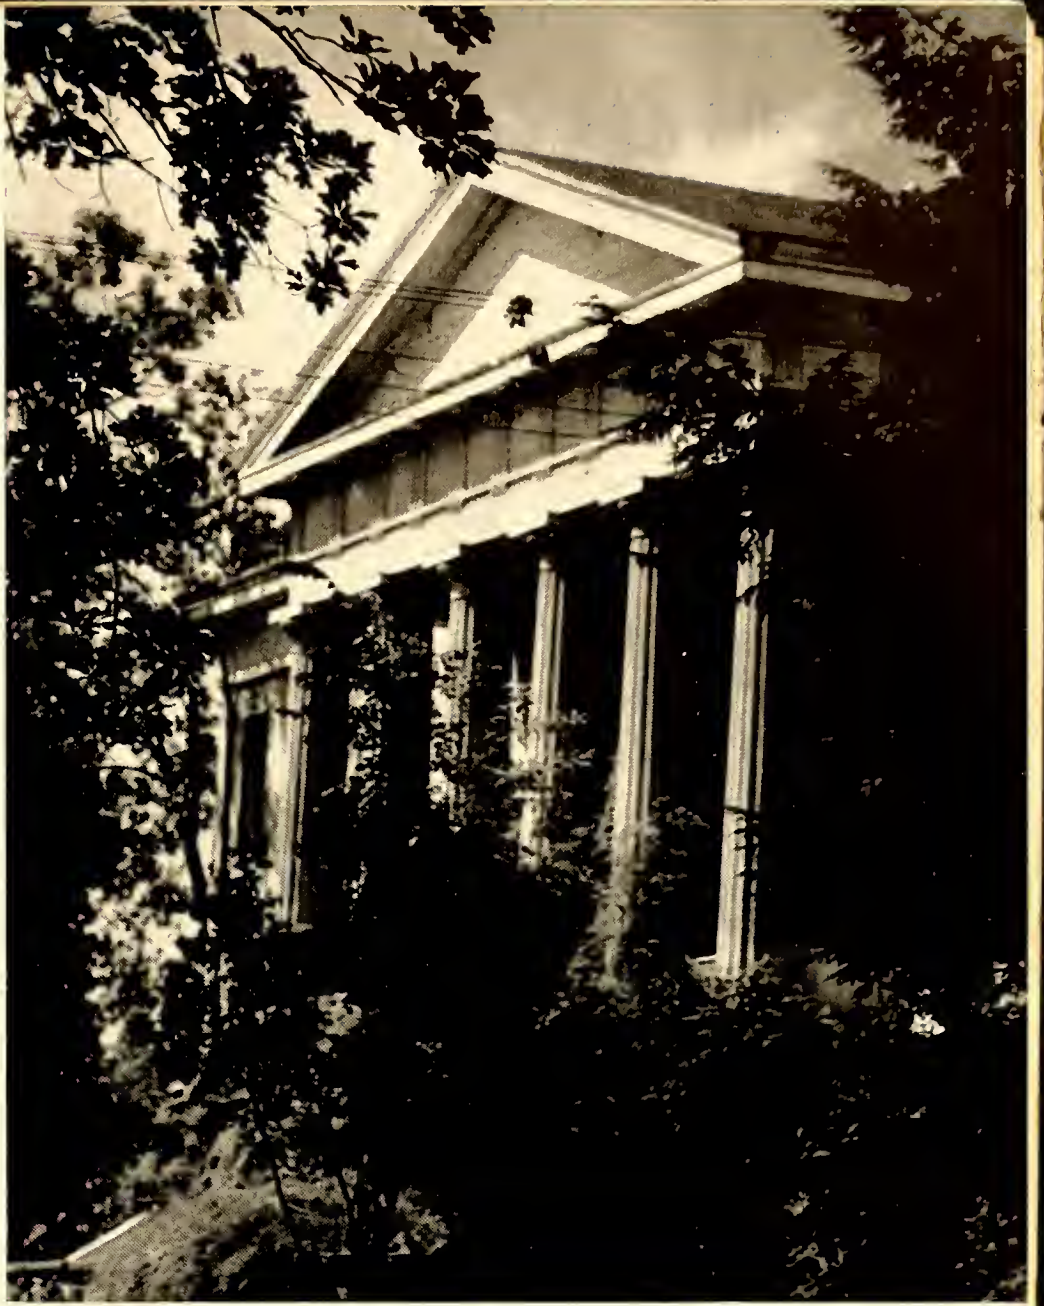

—MARY LEONARD.

ALMA MATER

Here's to our Alma Mater, to you we sing;
Now, all together, let's make Mitchell ring;
Lessons learned at Mitchell will leave their seal;
And friendships formed there are true as steel.

Good luck to dear old Mitchell. To you we're true;
May skies above you forever be blue;
'Gainst the task before us we will prevail.
Three cheers for Mitchell. M. C. we hail.

All hail!

Hail to thee! Hail M. C.!

Mitchell! Mitchell dear!

COLLEGE MARSHALS

PERCIE LAZENBY, Chief

FRANCES RAMSEY

MIRIAM BONNER

MARY LEONARD

NANCY BRISTOL

KATHERINE POWERS

MARY MARTIN SHERRILL

The Marshals, who represent the college in all public performances, are selected on the basis of a point system. In the belief that a vital part of education involves the ability to work with people as well as with books, the honor points are given for participation both in campus activities and in scholastic work.

Mrs. Ruth Knox Morrow, an honor graduate of Mitchell College, says, "The Mitchell College Chapter of the North Carolina Historical Society is the most distinctive society in the college."

The Chapter was organized in 1931 with Margaret Phifer as its first president.

Membership in this society is based on scholarship.

This year, 1937-38, the following students won membership: Mary Leonard, Frances Ramsey, Percie Lazenby, Nancy Bristol, Opal Wike, Nina Brown, Mary Martin Sherrill, Lois Rimmer, Mary Douglas, Arthur Foster, and Katherine Rimmer.

The purpose of the Athletic Association is to offer to all students an opportunity to participate in athletics. The association is under the supervision of the physical director. Tennis, basketball, archery, and other games are encouraged. Awards are made in accordance with the athletic point system. Each participant in any form of athletic activity receives a certain number of points, the number determined by the length of the time spent in the activity or the degree of skill revealed.

CLASS PROPHECY

"The Crystal Ball Will Tell You All."

The crystal clears . . . There comes a picture of MARY MARTIN SHERRILL at the blackboard in her English classroom at Mitchell College, trying to explain the finer points of a topical outline. A knock is heard at the door, and Mrs. Clarence Moore (formerly JEAN MUNDY) enters . . . The scene changes and I see SARA COSTNER in her country home, entertaining for MISS ANNE GRIF-FITH, who has just been promoted to the office of chief buyer for Montaldo's in Charlotte. Among those present at the luncheon are MIRIAM BONNER, who has gained fame at home and abroad as the outstanding dress designer of this period, and ANNE AMIS, registrar at Mitchell College since the resignation of Miss Helen Hermann.

A cloud passes through the crystal . . . It clears . . . I see several swimmers fighting madly to outdistance one another as they near the goal . . . The race is over! The winner—pardon me, the winners—of the 1940 Olympic Races are Misses MARGARET COPENHAVER and MARGARET ERB, who came in together in the final lap. An animated little woman excitedly jumping up and down attracts my attention . . . I see, she is NANCY BRISTOL, now Mrs. Robert McLeod, who is on a world tour with her husband. With her is Mrs. Lawrence Blanton, the former MARY LEONARD. Mrs. Trox Montgomery (ROSE MILLER) joins the group and they leave to have lunch at Mrs. Montgomery's hotel.

Now I see that PERCIE LAZENBY is having trouble with Mrs. Pat. Patterson's (MYRTLE MORGAN) son in her first grade class of the Blackstone, Virginia, Grammar School . . . The scenes are changing quickly now . . . NANCY LEINSTER is giving her basketball squad of W. C. U. N. C. a thorough workout. MISS FRANCES RAMSEY, outstanding English professor of the same school is on the sidelines watching the practice . . . Attending the meeting of the National Christian Association in Atlanta, Georgia, are Misses FLORENCE GUIGOU, FRANCES EARNHARDT, OPAL WIKE and RUTH ROBLES . . . RUTH MILLER, RUTH WILSON and RACHEL WILSON have just entered their apartment in Spartanburg, South Carolina, after a hard day's teaching in the Spartanburg High School . . .

Miss MYRA RODMAN and Miss LOIS RIMMER are giving their opening performance at the Metropolitan Opera House. In one of the boxes I spy that well known financier, ALLWYN RIMMER, the brother of the singer. Also seated in the audience are the famous critics, Misses SUE MCLEOD and LUCY ANDREWS . . .

The Woman's Club of Statesville is honoring Miss MARY ALICE SIDES and Miss MARGARET SPECK, who have gained fame as artists of unusual talent . . . ELIZABETH GUIGOU is visiting NINA BROWN at her Beverly Hills home in Hollywood, where Miss Brown is resting after her recent screen hit. MARGARET CROWELL is with them, having come to Hollywood as the holder of the title "Miss America of 1940." Also in the film city is Miss SARA LEDFORD, who is recognized as the most accomplished hairdresser there . . . Miss GLADYS DAWSON has won fame as a dancer on Broadway, and Miss FRANCES MORGAN, accomplished organist, has succeeded Miss Ann Leaf, broadcasting over the Columbia Network . . . Miss KATHERINE POWERS, the most popular actress on Broadway, is making her most outstanding performance of the year in "Romeo and Juliet" . . .

Examining the crystal again, I see Mr. ARTHUR FOSTER, who has recently been elected Senator of North Carolina, seated at his desk in Washington, conferring with JACK RAYMER, his right-hand man . . . Miss MARY LILY FOARD, a state 4-H Club Official, is returning to Raleigh from a tour of the state. Accompanying her is Miss MARY DOUGLAS, prominent in the field of education for women . . . Misses WOODROW SUMMERS and ESTELLE OVERCASH, grammar school teachers in Charlotte, N. C., have just returned home from a most enjoyable visit to Miss KATHERINE RIMMER, Dean of Girl Students at William and Mary College . . .

Looking more closely, I can see Mr. EDGAR SHUMAKER and Mr. WILLIAM SAMPLE, famous criminal lawyers of Greenville, S. C., poring over the evidence of their newest case, the most outstanding of their practice . . . Miss GWYNDOLON FURCHES, now in training at Duke Hospital in Durham, making many an invalid's life more comfortable and cheerful . . . Misses THELMA HARRIS and DOROTHY McLAIN, efficient secretaries, now holding positions with the Vicks Company in Greensboro, N. C., where Miss EARLENE HUDSON is also employed as private secretary to the president of the company . . .

A cloud is passing over the crystal, but in my last fleeting glimpse I see Miss ISMAE PETERSON walking home after a day of worrying with her seventh grade class at the grammar school in Wilmington . . . Now the cloud covers the whole crystal . . . Perhaps it will clear again . . . No, it will reveal no more of its secrets . . . My glimpses into the future are over for today, so I lay my crystal aside and sit down to think over the marvelous sights I have seen.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA }
COUNTY OF IREDELL } MITCHELL COLLEGE
CITY OF STATESVILLE }

We, the Class of 1938, of Mitchell College, being of sound mind and possessed of vast amounts of property, both personal and in common, do hereby signify our intention of making our Last Will and Testament.

ITEM I

To Mitchell College, we leave our love and appreciation for all that she has meant to us.

ITEM II

To the faculty, our esteemed friends, we bequeath a sweet succession of restful nights and peaceful days. They need no longer be worried with our ceaseless questions.

ITEM III

To the Freshmen, our envious friends, we bequeath our dignified ways and our position as honor guests at the Prom.

ITEM IV

The following personal bequests are made with the hope that the recipients will appreciate the intrinsic worth of each gift and the magnanimous spirit of each honor:

I, Lucy Andrews, leave my long used powder puff to Carolyn Flowers, hoping that it will improve her looks.

I, Anne Amis, leave my remedy for curing colds to Mrs. Akin.

I, Miriam Bonner, leave the office of Vice-President to whoever feels equal to it.

I, Nancy Bristol, leave my happiness to Martha Baylor and hope that she will some day find a big man for her own.

I, Nina Brown, will my nick-name of "Cutie" to Louise White.

I, Margaret Copenhaver, leave the Kampus Kit to "Kitty" Gibbs.

I, Sarah Costner, leave my place on the council to Jennie R. Smith.

I, Margaret Crowell, will lend my formula for golden hair to Annabelle Blackburn.

I, Gladys Dawson, will my ability to flirt to Annie Lou, hoping that she will perfect it.

I, Mary Douglas, leave my sociology seat to any Freshman who can fill it.

I, Frances Earnhardt, give my motto of "See all, hear all, etc." to Irma Carpenter.

I, Margaret Erb, leave my Academy students to Elizabeth Watts.

I, Mary Lily Foard, will my 4-II work to Evelyn Johnson.

I, Gwyndolon Furches, leave my spit curls to Doris Hunt.

I, Ann Griffith, will the front windows to Mable Thorpe, with the hope that she will be serenaded.

We, the Guigons, leave our ability of arranging dates to King Campbell.

I, Earlene Hudson, bequeath to Frances Rhinehart, one of my many friends, perhaps Florida!

I, Percie Lazenby, will my dignity and poise to Macksie Lovell.

I, Nancy Leinster, will my basketball scrap book to Rosemary Alligood, with the hope that she will find some points.

I, Mary Leonard, leave my possessions in the hands of Frances Lowrance while I'm away.

I, Sara Bess Leford, will my job of fixing hair gratis to Mary Wetmore Cole.

I, Rose Miller, bequeath my typewriter to Naomi Bounous, hoping that she can do better than I did.

I, Ruth Miller, leave Margaret Alexander my room hoping she can get plenty of exercise.

I, Myrtle Morgan, leave nothing as I left all, last year.

I, Frances Morgan, leave the pipe organ to next year's students.

I, Jean Mundy, leave my chair in Halls to Marie Pons.

I, Mabel Pierce, will the job of working in the dean's office to Margaret Sherrill.

I, Ismae Peterson, bequeath my ice cream to Laura Fritts.

I, Bill Powell, will my ability to concentrate to "Lightening" Holland.

I, Katherine Powers, leave my book on "How To Make Speeches" to Sarah Virginia Colerider.

I, Frances Ramsey, leave my executive ability to Willie Mae Cooper.

I, Jack Raymer, leave all my wit to Tom Cowan.

I, Allwyn Rimmer, leave my voice lessons to Johnny Tsumas.

I, Katherine Rimmer, will my sweet disposition to Billie Pickett.

I, Lois Rimmer, will a high C to Virginia Huff.

I, Ruth Robles, will the laundry to Ruby Spainhour.

I, Myra Rodman, will my line on the date book to Ann Brooks.

I, Mary Martin Sherrill, bequeath all my worries to Jean Ross.

I, Ed Shumaker, leave all my honor as a husband to a future senior boy.

I, Mary Alice Sides, leave my artistic ability to Hight Moore.

I, Margaret Speck, leave my calmness and coolness to Louise Privette.

I, Woodrow Summers, leave my place in the day students lounge to Leila Johnston.

I, Opal Wike, leave my work for Miss Razor to Sarah Crooks.

I, Sue McLeod, will the dining room and all that is in it to Ruth Cowan.

I, Estelle Overcash, bequeath my chair in the library annex to Ann Coffey.

We, the Wilsons leave our "twinsyness" to the college, hoping that it will have another set soon.

Hereby revoking and making null and void all other wills and testaments heretofore made by us, in testimony whereof, we the Senior Class of Mitchell College do hereby set our hands and seal this Thirtieth day of May in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and thirty-eight. Signed, sealed, and declared by the said members of the Senior Class to be their Last Will and Testament, in the presence of us who at their request do ascribe our names as witnesses unto.
